DOCUMENT OPENS WITH A PLEA FOR CO-OPERATION

Washington, Dec. 5.—President Roosevelt's annual message was delivered to Congress today. Opening with a plea for co-operation in continuing the country's prosperity, and in correcting existing evils, for a "square deal" for everybody, the message takes up the question of corporations and railroad rate legislation. The President says:

I am in no sense hostile to corporations. This is an age of combination, and any effort to prevent all combination will be not only useless, but in the end vicious, because of the contempt for law which the failure to enforce law inevitably produces. The corporation has come to stay, just as the trades union has come to stay. Each can do and has done great good. Each should be favored so long as it does good. But each should be sharply checked where it acts against law and justice.

Experience has shown conclusively that it is useless to try to get any adequate regulation and supervision of these great corporations by state action. Such regulation and supervision can only be effectively exercised by a sovereign whose jurisdiction is co-extensive with the field work of the corporations—that is, by the national government. I believe that this regulation and supervision can be obtained by the enactment of law by the congress. If this proves impossible, it will certainly be necessary ultimately to confer in fullest form such power upon the national government by affirmative amendment of the constitution.

The laws of the congress and of the several states hitherto, as passed upon by the courts, have resulted more often in showing that the states have no power in the matter than that the national government has power; so that there at present exists a very unfortunate condition of things, under which these great corporations doing an interstate business occupy the position of subjects without a sovereign, neither any state government nor the national government having effective control over them. Our steady aim should be by legislation, cautiously and carefully undertaken, but resolutely persevered in, to assert the sovereignty of the national government by affirmative action.

This is only in form an innovation. In substance it is merely a restoration, for from the earliest time such regulation of industrial activities has been recognized in the action of the law-making bodies, and all that I propose is to meet the changed conditions in such manner as will prevent the commonwealth abdicating the power it has always possessed, not only in this country, but also in England before and since this country became a separate nation.

Railroad Rate Legislation.

As I said in my message of Dec. 6 last, the immediate and most pressing need so far as legislation is concerned is the enactment into law of some scheme to secure to the agents of the government such supervision and regulation of the rates charged by the railroads of the country engaged in interstate traffic as shall summarily and effectively prevent the imposition of unjust or unreasonable rates. It must include putting a complete stop to rebates in every shape and form. This power to regulate rates, like all similar powers over the business world, should be exercised with moderation, caution and self-restraint, but it should exist, so that it can be effectively exercised when the need arises.

In my judgment, the most important provision which such law should contain is that conferring upon some competent administrative body the power to decide upon the case being brought before it whether a given rate prescribed by a railroad is reasonable and just, and if it is found to be unreasonable and unjust then, after full investigation of the complaint, to prescribe the limit of rate beyond which it shall not be lawful to go—the maximum reasonable rate, as it is commonly called—this decision to go into effect within a reasonable time and to obtain from thence onward, subject to review by the courts.

It sometimes happens at present, not that a rate is too high, but that a favored shipper is given too low a rate. In such case the commission would have the right to fix this already established minimum rate as the maximum, and it would need only one or two such decisions by the commission to cure railroad companies of the practice of giving improper minimum rates. I call your attention to the fact that my proposal is not to give the commission power to initiate or originate rates generally, but to regulate a rate already fixed or originated by the roads upon complaint and after investigation. A heavy penalty should be exacted from any corporation which fails to respect an order of the commission. I regard this power to establish a maximum rate as being essential to any scheme of real reform in the matter of railway regulation.

It is worth while considering whether it would not be wise to confer on the government the right of civil action against the beneficiary of a rebate for at least twice the value of the rebate. This would help stop what is really blackmail. Elevator allowances should be stopped, for they have now grown to such an extent that they are demoralizing and are used as rebates.

Private Car Lines.

All private car lines, industrial roads, refrigerator charges and the like should be expressly put under the supervision of the interstate commerce commission or some similar body so far as rates and agreements practically affecting rates are concerned. A rebate in the form of a charge on a division of the rate for refrigerating charges is just as pernicious as a rebate in any other way.

There should be publicity of the accounts of common carriers. Only in this way can violations or evasions of (Continued on page 2.)

is $200,000.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 5.—Judson Harmon, former United States attorney general, has been appointed receiver for the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton and Pere Marquette railroads. Mr. Harmon giving bond for $200,000. Federal Circuit Judge Henry Lurton issued the order. The application was made on behalf of Walter B. Horn of New York, a creditor of both roads, and was agreed to by the defendants in answers admitting the principal charges of insolvency. In the main application for a receiver for the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, which was first filed, it was declared that Walter B. Horn, a resident of New York, was a creditor to the amount of $62,986.13 for money loaned, now due, and which the defendant had admitted his inability to pay. The defendant company was declared to have been insolvent prior to July 7, 1904, on which date it came under a different controlling influence, and assumed large obligations, one of these being the purchase of 110,000 shares of Pere Marquette stock for $125,000,000; a second, a tripartite agreement between the defendant and the Pere Marquette and the Toledo Railway and Terminal company, involving large obligations for terminals at Toledo; and third, an agreement to carry $3,300,000 bonds issued by the Pere Marquette to cover its purchase of the Chicago, Cincinnati and Louisville railway.

FLOOD OF BILLS IN THE HOUSE

Large Variety of Subjects Receive Attention—Tariff is One—Bill
Aimed at Hazing.

Washington, Dec. 5.—A large number of bills and joint resolutions were introduced in the house. They cover a large variety of subjects, including Philippine tariff, statehood, pensions, regulations of the hours of employment in the executive departments, merchant marine, increase of salaries of the vice president and members of the cabinet, requiring corporations to make full reports of their affairs to the commissioner of corporations; increasing the powers of the interstate commerce commission; investigation of campaign funds, official expenditures on the Panama canal; of insurance companies doing an interstate business; of cotton reports and of the condition of child labor; provision for a six-year term for the president and the election of senators by direct vote of the people. A bill introduced by Mr. Hearst (N. Y.) is "to enable the United States of America to acquire, maintain and operate electric telegraphs, and to pay therefor by sale of bonds redeemable out of the net earnings."

Mr. Williams of Mississippi, leader of the minority in the house, introduced a number of bills and joint resolutions affecting the tariff and campaign contributions. The congressman template free trade with the Philippines, a reassembling of the United States and Canadian joint high commission with a view to freer trade relations between the United States and Canada, and a minimum tariff for the United States. The bill regarding campaign contributions forbids federal corporations chartered by the federal government, engaged in interstate commerce, from making such contributions.

Rate legislation was a topic of informal discussion by the president with some of his callers. Representatives Esch and Townsend of Wisconsin and Michigan had a brief conference with the president. At the last session of congress the rate measure which bore their name passed the house of representatives, but the senate failed to act upon it. They expect to reintroduce their bill at the present session. Mr. Townsend told the president that the measure practically was completed; that he and Mr. Esch were putting on the finishing touches.

The merchant marine commission, consisting of members of senate and house, were called together after the adjournment of congress and the bill submitted last session was revised for reintroduction in both bodies Wednesday. It was agreed that Senator Gallinger should offer the bill in the senate and Representative Grosvenor of Ohio in the house. Two entirely new features were incorporated in the bill. As it now stands it carries an increased mail subvention to the Oceanic line from San Francisco to the Hawaiian Islands, Samoa and Australasia of $217,000 a year above the $230,000 now received by this line under the postal aid law of 1891. The commission also adopted a provision increasing by $250,000 the compensation now received by the American line from New York to Southampton, giving this line for its 20-knot service a maximum subvention of about $1,000,000 to offset the new British subvention of $1,100,000 given to the Cunard Steamship company.

Aimed at Hazing.

Washington, Dec. 5.—The Annapolis "code," which has figured so prominently in the courtmartial trial of Midshipman Minor Meriwether, was attacked in a bill introduced in the house by Representative Butler of Pennsylvania. The bill stipulates that peremptory dismissal shall be the punishment for any midshipman implicated in hazing.

Commission Now Democratic.

Washington, Dec. 5.—President Roosevelt will send to the senate the appointment of Franklin Lane of California to be a member of the interstate commerce commission. Mr. Lane is a Democrat and his appointment will change the political complexion of the interstate commerce commission from Republican to Democratic.

Smoot Case.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Chairman Burrows of the senate committee on privileges and elections says that no action will be taken in the case of Senator Smoot of Utah until the vacancy on the committee is filled, which will put it over until after the holiday recess.

SIX THOUSAND

Demanding From a Director of the Mutual Reserve.

New York, Dec. 5.—Horace Brockway, a hotel man and director of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance company, was before the insurance inquisition. He said he had given $6,000 to President Frederick A. Burnham of that company at the demand of Mr. Burnham in 1898. Mr. Brockway told the committee that Mr. Burnham told him that if he would take out a policy in the Mutual Reserve he would make him a director. After having been a director for some time he was put on the payroll of the company at $500 a week. Asked what he did to earn that money he said he looked over some loans for the company. He was consulted by policyholders as to whether the company was a good one to insure in, and did whatever he was asked to do. He had been getting $300 a week eight weeks when Dr. Burnham demanded the $6,000.

What President Burnham did with that money was explained by George D. Eldredge, vice president and actuary of the Mutual Reserve company, who testified that President Burnham told him he had given it to Hilary Bell, a newspaper man and publicity agent of the company, to secure the publication of articles favorable to the company at a time when it was being criticised in the newspapers. Mr. Bell had said that he could accomplish much more with the money if he were not compelled to report to the company just what he expended it for.

Million Promised Strikers.

Berlin, Dec. 5.—News from St. Petersburg, via the frontier, today states that the Russian cabinet has decided to grant one million dollars towards satisfying the financial demands of the strikers in postal and telegraphic divisions. One-third of the amount demanded. It is understood the men will return trusting to Witte to secure for them the remainder.

RIOTING AT MANY POINTS

GREAT UPRISING OF PEASANTS IS

Several of the Nobility in One District Attacked and Killed—Strike Is Unbroken.

Klenigsburg, East Prussia, Dec. 5.—Reports received from Libau say that several of the nobility and other residents of Livonia and of Courland have been attacked by peasants, killed and terribly mutilated. Baron Campenhausen was severely wounded. Bands of several hundred peasants are roving about, robbing and killing. A general insurrection of the peasants and laborers is expected.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 3 (via Eydtkuhnen, East Prussia, Dec. 5).—It is reported from Cronstadt that a German squadron has been sighted in the Baltic sea, near the Russian coast. Rumor attributed the appearance of the squadron as preparatory to the flight of the Russian imperial family. Agrarian and anti-Jewish outbreaks are reported to have occurred in the governments of Chergaioff, Terek, Kursk and Kasan.

In a little village on the borders of the Baltic the people have organized the "Republic of Novargansk."

GENERAL TREPOFT.

They have issued a manifesto abolishing the rule not only of the emperor but of the Deity, which has been read in the churches and the popular assembly halls.

The telegraph and postal tie-ups remain complete. The operators met the threat to discharge them unless they returned to work, by resolving to prosecute the strike until their demands were satisfied. The League of Leagues, which is issuing decrees like a veritable provisional government, has openly defied the prefect's warnings to walking delegates and agitators that any attempts to persuade employees to leave work would lead to their arrest and the imposition of a fine of $250, and is issuing a counter proclamation warning not only the Russian, but the Danish, operators to work at their peril. The authorities profess confidence that the strike will be broken in a few days, but the basis of their optimism is not stated. The immolation of interior Minister Durnovo seems to offer a way of retreat for the government. This involves another surrender before the victorious proletariat.

Count Witte is now convinced that the emperor by acceding to the demand for universal suffrage may still find a common ground on which the government and the moderates and the extreme elements can stand if this fails to stay the headlong march of events, the proclamation of a ready-made constitution might be tried as the last card. Then nothing would remain except the proclamation of a dictatorship. Competent judges of the situation believe that a dictatorship while it might restrain the rising flood temporarily, would only increase the dimensions of the catastrophe, and when the dam goes except the government and dynasty away to common ruin.

Plot Against Trepoft.
The trial of Mlle. Leonteff and a dozen others who are charged with being implicated in a terrorist plot to kill General Trepoft, is proceeding behind closed doors. The evidence developed a plot to assassinate with ramifications at Moscow and elsewhere, which had for its purpose the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius, already accomplished, General Trepoft and other "tyrants." Mlle. Leonteff is the daughter of General Leonteff, who last spring was appointed governor of Yakutsk, eastern Siberia. Following the arrest of Mlle. Leonteff, it was reported that two nieces of General Trepoft, who was then governor general of St. Petersburg, attempted to commit suicide, and it was even charged that one of them had actually attempted the life of her uncle.

At Count Witte's solicitation a deputation of zemstvos participated in the sessions of the cabinet on the election law. A decision was reached to grant practically universal secret and equal suffrage to males 25 years of age, on the basis of one representative for each 250,000 of the population, but Count Witte refused to yield direct suffrage to the country districts, where there will be a double set of electors. Unless the extremists are willing to accept this solution, the support of the moderates will not greatly improve the situation, as the latter in the present crisis are almost a negligible quantity. Perhaps it is too much to hope that the social revolutionary leaders, drunk with the success achieved, can be induced to cease their efforts, which are now entirely directed to winning over the army.

Rebellious Regiments.

London, Dec. 5.—The correspondent at St. Petersburg of the Times says: "Three regiments at Riga have refused to perform police duties. The emperor has received in audience Father John of Cronstadt. Count Alvensleben (former German ambassador at St. Petersburg) has brought an autograph letter from Emperor William to Emperor Nicholas. The sailors of the imperial guard have mutinied."

Importing Arms.

Stockholm, Dec. 5.—Great quantities of arms and ammunition are being imported to Finland. Every steamer departing for Finland from Sweden carries 100 pounds of ammunition, the limit allowed under Swedish laws for passenger steamers. Every available revolver has been purchased, as well as large quantities of discarded Swedish army guns.

Brief Official Announcement Made
That the British Cabinet Has Resigned.

(Bulletin.)

London, Dec. 5.—After being in conference for an hour this morning with King Edward, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, liberal leader of the House of Commons, accepted the position of prime minister, which was resigned yesterday by Arthur J. Balfour, and agreed to undertake to form a new cabinet. On Campbell-Bannerman's return to his house a statement to this effect was issued.

London, Dec. 5.—The political crisis in the United Kingdom reached a climax when Arthur J. Balfour, the premier, formally tendered the resignations of himself and the members of his cabinet to King Edward, who accepted them. His majesty has invited Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman to an interview, and will offer him the mission of forming a new cabinet. Sir Henry will accept the task, and within a few days, even within a few hours, a new government will be formed. A brief official announcement was made that the cabinet had resigned, that the king had accepted the resignations and that Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman had been sent for.

San Francisco, Dec. 5.—The Southern Pacific passenger train which arrived here this morning from Ogden had a remarkable experience in the Nevada desert. Between Winnemucca and Lovelock, the dining car caught fire and the conductor decided to make a run for Lovelock across the 25 miles of desert. With the dining car blazing the train reached its destination. The passengers were in a panic but none was hurt. The car was practically destroyed.

GOV. LAFOLLETTE'S MESSAGE.

San Francisco, Dec. 5.—Governor LaFollette delivered his message to the legislature today. It deals in matters of legislation for the proper taxation of railroads, but sidesteps the question whether or not he will accept or decline the office of United States senator. Political observers opine the governor will stay in the state unless the legislature acts favorably, upon the taxation matters.

RUSSIAN CAPITAL GUARDED BY

Access to It.

(Bulletin.)

St. Petersburg, via Eydtkuhnen, Dec. 5.—An incredible condition of affairs exists in this city. Today the central postoffice is under guard and great crowds of people are denied access.

Chaos reigns in the capital. The city has been divided into four military districts and over 16,000 Cossacks and infantry soldiers, armed with machine guns, are kept constantly on guard.

St. Petersburg, via Eydtkuhnen, Dec. 5.—A prearranged strike began today at various points throughout the empire. The strike has assumed formidable proportions. At St. Petersburg the employees of 72 factories struck. About 110,000 workmen are idle. At Moscow 58,000 employees in 26 factories struck. Reports from other cities give the following figures as to the strike: Vladimir, six factories, 16,000 men; Warsaw, several factories, 10,000 workmen; Kieff, six factories, 5,000 men. The central strike committee at St. Petersburg believes workmen have struck throughout the empire as the result of its call.

Berlin.

Berlin, Dec. 5.—The foreign office today says the Porte has addressed a note to the powers conceding all the essential demands with a few reservations, regarding the Macedonia financial reforms. The Turkish note, the foreign office expects, will form a basis of satisfactory settlement.

Paris, Dec. 5.—It is officially announced that as Austria has refused the latest proposition made by the Sultan of Turkey offering a compromise whereby the Porte hoped an understanding could be reached for the appointment of financial controllers in Macedonia who would be acceptable to the Sultan, a naval demonstration of the powers to force Turkey to agree to international control of Macedonian finances will be continued. Some other point in Turkish territory will now be seized by the powers.

CRAWFORD HANGED

Convicted Murderer Died Gamely Today Without Revealing Identity.
—Father a Rich Man.

Filkriver, Minn., Dec. 5.—C. D. Crawford, convicted of the murder of Heine Lundin, in a box car here, was hanged today in the county jail. "Crawford" died gamely. He refused to reveal his identity at the last minute.

Rev. M. N. Wilkinson, his spiritual advisor, states that the dead man's father is worth several hundred thousand dollars.

"Crawford" could have had all the money necessary to fight his case but he refused. The family did not know of his predicament and believe he is wandering about the world. "Crawford" ran away from home and his folks have not heard of him since. A first-class hotel for a stay was denied by Judge Baxter late Monday.

"I did wrong and I am sorry I did not get a fair shake. I am glad to die," said "Crawford's" last words.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

the law be surely detected. A system of examination of railroad accounts should be provided similar to that now conducted into the national banks by the bank examiners. A few first class railroad accountants, if they had proper direction and proper authority to inspect books and papers, could accomplish much in preventing willful violations of the law.

Employers' Liability Law.

In my annual message to the Fifty-eighth congress at its second session I recommended the passage of an employers' liability law for the District of Columbia and in our navy yards. I renewed that recommendation in my message to the Fifty-eighth congress at its second session and further suggested the appointment of a commission to make a comprehensive study of employers' liability with a view to the enactment of a wise and constitutional law covering the subject, applicable to all industries within the scope of the federal power. I hope that such a law will be prepared and enacted as speedily as possible.

There has been demand for depriving courts of the power to issue injunctions in labor disputes. Such special limitation of the equity powers of our courts would be most unwise. It is true that some judges have misused this power, but this does not justify a denial of the power any more than an improper exercise of the power to call a strike by a labor leader would justify the denial of the right to strike. The remedy is to regulate the procedure by requiring the judge to give due notice to the adverse parties before granting the writ, the hearing to be ex parte if the adverse party does not appear at the time and place ordered. What is due notice must depend upon the facts of the case. It should not be used as a pretext to permit violation of law or the jeopardizing of life or property. Of course this would not authorize the issuing of a restraining order or injunction in any case in which it is not already authorized by existing law.

I renew the recommendation I made in my last annual message for an investigation by the department of commerce and labor of general labor conditions, especial attention to be paid to the conditions of child labor and child labor legislation in the several states. Such an investigation should take into account the various problems with which the question of child labor is connected. In such a republic as ours the one thing that we cannot afford to neglect is the problem of turning out decent citizens. The future of the nation depends upon the citizenship of the generations to come. The children of today are those who tomorrow will shape the destiny of our land, and we cannot afford to neglect them. The legislature of Colorado has recommended that the national government provide some general measure for the protection from abuse of children and dumb animals throughout the United States. I lay the matter before you for what I trust will be your favorable consideration.

As to Women Who Work.

The department of commerce and labor should also make a thorough investigation of the conditions of women in industry. Over 5,000,000 American women are now engaged in gainful occupations, yet there is an almost complete dearth of data upon which to base any trustworthy conclusions as regards a subject as important as it is vast and complicated. The introduction of women into industry is working change and disturbance in the domestic and social life of the nation. The decrease in marriage, and especially in the birth rate, has been coincident with it. We must face accomplished facts, and the adjustment to factory conditions must be made, but surely it can be made with less friction and less harmful effects on family life than is now the case. This whole matter in reality forms one of the greatest sociological phenomena of our time. It is a social question of the first importance, of far greater importance than any merely political or economic question can be.

In any great labor disturbance not only are employer and employee interested, but also a third party—the general public. Every considerable labor difficulty in which interstate commerce is involved should be investigated by the government and the facts officially reported to the public.

Insurance.

The great insurance companies afford striking examples of corporations whose business has extended so far beyond the jurisdiction of the states which created them as to preclude strict enforcement of supervision and regulation by the parent states. In my last annual message I recommended that the congress carefully consider whether the power of the bureau of corporations cannot constitutionally be extended to cover interstate transactions in insurance. Recent events have emphasized the importance of an early and exhaustive consideration of this question, to see whether it is not possible to furnish better safeguards than the several states have been able to furnish against corruption of the kind which has been exposed.

It has been only too clearly shown that certain of the men at the head of these large corporations take but small note of the ethical distinction between honesty and dishonesty. They draw the line only this side of what may be called law honesty, the kind of honesty necessary in order to avoid falling into the clutches of the law. Of course the only complete remedy for this condition must be found in an aroused public conscience, a higher sense of ethical conduct in the community at large and especially among business men and in the great profession of the law, and in the growth of a spirit which condemns all dishonesty, whether in rich man or in poor man, whether it takes the shape of bribery or of blackmail. But much can be done by legislation which is not only drastic, but practical. There is need of a far stricter and more uniform regulation of the vast insurance interests of this country. The United States should in this respect follow the policy of other nations by providing adequate national supervision of commercial interests which are clearly national in character.

I repeat my previous recommendation that the congress should consider whether the federal government has any power or owes any duty with respect to domestic transactions in insurance of an interstate character. That state supervision has proved inadequate is generally conceded.

The Revenue.

There is more need of stability than of the attempt to attain an ideal perfection in the methods of raising revenue, and the shock and strain to the business world certain to attend any serious change in these methods render such change inadvisable unless for grave reason. It is not possible to lay down any general rule by which to determine the moment when the reasons for will outweigh the reasons against such a change. No change can be made on lines beneficial to or desired by one section or one state only. There must be something like a general agreement among the citizens of the several states that the change is needed and desired in the interest of the people as a whole, and there should then be a sincere, intelligent and disinterested effort to make it in such shape as will combine, so far as possible, the maximum of good to the people at large with the minimum of necessary disregard for the special interests of localities or classes, but in time of peace the revenue must, on the average, taking a series of years together, equal the expenditures or else the revenues must be increased. Last year there was a deficit. Unless our expenditures can be kept within the revenues then our revenue laws must be readjusted.

It is impossible to outline what shape such a readjustment should take, for it is as yet too early to say whether there will be need for it. It should be considered whether it is not desirable that the tariff laws should provide for applying as against or in favor of any other nation maximum and minimum tariff rates established by the congress, so as to secure a certain reciprocity of treatment between other nations and ourselves.

Economy in Expenditures.

I earnestly recommend to the congress the need of economy and, to this end, of a rigid scrutiny of appropriations. All unnecessary offices should be abolished. In the public printing also a large saving of money can be made. There is a constantly growing tendency to publish masses of unimportant information at which no human being ever looks.

Yet, in speaking of economy, I must in nowise be understood as advocating the false economy which is in the end the worst extravagance. To cut down in the navy would be a crime against the nation. To fail to push forward all work on the Panama canal would be as great a folly.

Currency.

Every consideration of prudence demands the addition of the element of elasticity to our currency system. The evil does not consist in an inadequate volume of money, but in the rigidity of this volume, which does not respond as it should to the varying needs of communities and of seasons. Inflation must be avoided, but some provision should be made that will insure a larger volume of money during the fall and winter months than in the less active seasons of the year, so that the currency will contract against speculation and will expand for the needs of legitimate business. At present the treasury department is at irregularly recurring intervals obliged in the interest of the business world—that is, in the interests of the American public—to try to avert financial crises by providing a remedy which should be provided by congressional action.

Business Methods in Departments.

At various times I have instituted investigations into the organization and conduct of the business of the executive departments. While none of these inquiries have yet progressed far enough to warrant final conclusions, they have already confirmed and emphasized the general impression that the organization of the departments is often faulty in principle and wasteful in results, while many of their business methods are antiquated and inefficient. I recommend that the congress consider this subject.

Federal Elections.

In my last annual message I said: "The power of the government to protect the integrity of the elections of its own officials is inherent and has been recognized and affirmed by repeated declarations of the supreme court. There is no enemy of free government more dangerous and none so insidious as the corruption of the electorate. No one defends or excuses corruption, and it would seem to follow that none would oppose vigorous measures to eradicate it. I recommend the enactment of a law directed against bribery and corruption in federal elections. The details of such a law may be safely left to the wise discretion of the congress, but it should go as far as under the constitution it is possible to go and should include severe penalties against him who gives or receives a bribe intended to influence his act or opinion as an elector and provisions for the publication not only of the expenditures for nominations and elections of all candidates, but also of all contributions received and expenditures made by political committees." I desire to repeat this recommendation.

All contributions by corporations to any political committee or for any political purpose should be forbidden by law, directors should not be permitted to use stockholders' money for such purposes, and, moreover, a prohibition of this kind would be, as far as it went, an effective method of stopping the evils aimed at in corrupt practices acts.

The Hague Conference.

The first conference of nations held at The Hague in 1899, being unable to dispose of all the business before it, recommended the consideration and settlement of a number of important questions by another conference to be called subsequently and at an early date. These questions were the following: (1) The rights and duties of neutrals; (2) the limitation of the armed forces on land and sea and of military budgets; (3) the use of new types and calibers of military and naval guns; (4) the inviolability of private property at sea in times of war; (5) the bombardment of ports, cities and villages by naval forces. In October, 1904, at the instance of the interparliamentary union, I issued invitations to all the powers signatory to The Hague convention to send delegates to such a conference and suggested that it be again held at The Hague.

From all the powers acceptance was received, coupled in some cases with the condition that we should wait until the end of the war then waging between Russia and Japan. The emperor of Russia, immediately after the treaty of peace which so happily terminated this war, in a note presented to the president on Sept. 13 took the initiative in recommending that the conference be now called. The United States government in response expressed its cordial acquiescence and stated that it would as a matter of course take part in the new conference and endeavor to further its aims. We assume that all civilized governments will support the movement and that the conference is now an assured fact. This government will do everything in its power to secure the success of the conference to the end that substantial progress may be made in the cause of international peace, justice and good will.

Monroe Doctrine.

There are certain essential points which must never be forgotten as regards the Monroe doctrine. In the first place, we must as a nation make it evident that we do not intend to treat it in any shape or way as an excuse for aggrandizement on our part at the expense of the republics to the south.

But we must make it evident that we do not intend to permit the Monroe doctrine to be used by any nation on this continent as a shield to protect it from the consequences of its own misdeeds against foreign nations. The Monroe doctrine does not force us to interfere to prevent the punishment of a port save to see that the punishment does not assume the form of territorial occupation in any shape. The case is more difficult when it refers to a contractual obligation. This country would certainly decline to go to war to prevent a foreign government from collecting a just debt. On the other hand, it is very inadvisable to permit any foreign power to take possession, even temporarily, of the custom houses of an American republic in order to enforce the payment of its obligations, for such temporary occupation might turn into a permanent occupation. The only escape from these alternatives may at any time be that we must ourselves undertake to bring about some arrangement by which so much as possible of a just obligation shall be paid.

To do so insures the defaulting republic from having to pay debts of an improper character under duress, while it also insures honest creditors of the republic from being passed by in the interest of dishonest or grasping creditors. Moreover, for the United States to take such a position offers the only possible way of insuring us against a clash with some foreign power. The position is therefore in the interest of peace as well as in the interest of justice.

Santo Domingo.

Santo Domingo has now made an appeal to us, and not only every principle of wisdom, but every generous instinct within us, bids us respond to the appeal. The conditions in Santo Domingo have for a number of years grown from bad to worse until a year ago all society was on the verge of dissolution. Fortunately just at this time a ruler sprang up in Santo Domingo who, with his colleagues, saw the dangers threatening their country and appealed to the friendship of the only neighbor who possessed the power and the will to help them. There was imminent danger of foreign intervention. The patience of foreign creditors had become exhausted, and at least two foreign nations were on the point of intervention and were only prevented by the unofficial assurance of this government that it would itself strive to help Santo Domingo in her hour of need.

Accordingly, the executive department of our government negotiated a treaty under which we are trying to help the Dominican people to straighten out their finances. This treaty is pending before the senate. In the meantime a temporary arrangement has been made under which the Dominican government has appointed Americans to all the important positions in the customs service, and they are seeing to the honest collection of the revenues, turning over 45 per cent to the government for running expenses and putting the other 55 per cent into a safe depository for equitable division in case the treaty shall be ratified among the various creditors, whether European or American. Under the course taken stability and order and all the benefits of peace are at last coming to Santo Domingo, danger of foreign intervention has been suspended, and there is at last a prospect that all creditors will get justice, no more and no less. If the arrangement is terminated by the failure of the treaty chaos will follow, and sooner or later this government may be involved in serious difficulties with foreign governments over the island or else may be forced itself to intervene in the island in some unpleasant fashion.

Army and Navy.

I do not believe that any army in the world has a better average of enlisted men or a better type of junior officer, but the army should be trained to act effectively in a mass. Provision should be made by sufficient appropriations for maneuvers of a practical kind.

Provision should be made for the promotion of exceptionally meritorious men over the heads of their comrades and for the retirement of all men who have reached a given age without getting beyond a given rank.

There should be an increase in the coast artillery force so that our coast fortifications can be in some degree adequately manned. There is special need for an increase and reorganization of the medical department of the army. In both the army and navy there must be the same thorough training for duty in the staff corps as in the fighting line. The importance of this was shown conclusively in the Spanish-American and the Russo-Japanese wars. The work of the medical departments in the Japanese army and navy is especially worthy of study.

Our navy must, relatively to the navies of other nations, always be of greater size than our army. We have most wisely continued for a number of years to build up our navy, and it has now reached a fairly high standard of efficiency. This standard must not only be maintained, but increased. It does not seem to me necessary, however, that the navy should, at least in the immediate future, be increased beyond the present number of units. What is now clearly necessary is to substitute efficient for inefficient units as the latter become worn out or as it becomes apparent that they are useless. Probably the result would be attained by adding a single battleship to our navy each year, the superseded or outworn vessels being laid up or broken up as they are thus replaced.

Naturalization.

On this subject I recommend:

First.—A federal bureau of naturalization, to be established in the department of commerce and labor, to supervise the administration of the naturalization laws and to receive returns of naturalizations pending and accomplished.

Second.—Uniformity of naturalization certificates, fees to be charged, and procedure.

Third.—More exacting qualifications for citizenship.

Fourth.—The preliminary declaration of intention to be abolished and no alien to be naturalized until at least ninety days after the filing of his petition.

Fifth.—Jurisdiction to naturalize aliens to be confined to United States district courts and to such state courts as have jurisdiction in civil actions in which the amount in controversy is unlimited; in cities of over 100,000 inhabitants the United States district courts to have exclusive jurisdiction in the naturalization of the alien residents of such cities.

Criminal Laws.

In my last message I asked the attention of the congress to the urgent need of action to make our criminal law more effective, and I most earnestly request that you pay heed to the report of the attorney general on this subject.

There seems to be no statute of the United States which provides for the punishment of a United States attorney or other officer of the government who corruptly agrees to wrongfully do or wrongfully refrain from doing any act when the consideration for such corrupt agreement is other than one possessing money value. This ought to be remedied by appropriate legislation. Legislation should also be enacted to cover explicitly, unequivocally and beyond question breach of trust in the shape of prematurely divulging official secrets by an officer or employee of the United States and to provide a suitable penalty therefor.

Merchant Marine.

To the spread of our trade in peace and the defense of our flag in war a great and prosperous merchant marine is indispensable. We should have ships of our own and seamen of our own to convey our goods to neutral markets and in case of need to re-enforce our battle line. It cannot but be a source of regret and uneasiness to us that the lines of communication with our sister republics of South America should be chiefly under foreign control. It is not a good thing that American merchants and manufacturers should have to send their goods and letters to South America via Europe if they wish security and dispatch. Even on the Pacific, where our ships have held their own better than on the Atlantic, our merchant flag is now threatened through the liberal aid bestowed by other governments on their own steam lines. I ask your earnest consideration of the report with which the merchant marine commission has followed its long and careful inquiry.

It is a matter of unmixed satisfaction once more to call attention to the excellent work of the pension bureau, for the veterans of the civil war have a greater claim upon us than any other class of our citizens. To them first of all among our people honor is due.

Immigration.

As I said in my last message to the congress, we cannot have too much immigration of the right sort, and we should have none whatever of the wrong sort. The questions arising in connection with Chinese immigration stand by themselves. The conditions in China are such that the entire Chinese cool-class—that is, the class of Chinese laborers, skilled and unskilled—legitimately come under the head of undesirable immigrants to this country. But in the effort to carry out the policy of excluding Chinese laborers, Chinese coolies, grave injustice and wrong have been done by this nation to the people of China and therefore ultimately to this nation itself. Chinese students, business and professional men of all kinds, not only merchants, but bankers, doctors, manufacturers, professors, travelers and the like, should be encouraged to come here and treated on precisely the same footing that we treat students, business men, travelers and the like of other nations.

As a people we have talked much of the open door in China, and we expect, and quite rightly intend to insist upon, justice being shown us by the Chinese. But we cannot expect to receive equity unless we do equity.

The Civil Service.

Heads of executive departments and members of the commission have called my attention to the fact that the rule requiring a filing of charges and three days' notice before an employee could be separated from the service for inefficiency has served no good purpose whatever. Experience has shown that the rule is wholly ineffective to save any man if a superior for improper reasons wishes to remove him and is mischievous because it sometimes serves to keep in the service incompetent men not guilty of specific wrongdoing. Having these facts in view, the rule has been amended by providing that where the inefficiency or incapacity comes within the personal knowledge of the head of a department the removal may be made without notice, the reasons therefor being filed and made a record of the department. The absolute right of removal rests where it always has rested, with the head of a department. The change is merely one of procedure. It was much needed, and it is producing good results.

Our copyright laws need revision.

Philippines and Other Islands.

During the last year the Philippine Islands have been slowly recovering from the series of disasters which since American occupation have greatly reduced the amount of agricultural products below what was produced in Spanish times.

The agricultural conditions of the islands enforce more strongly than ever the argument in favor of reducing the tariff on the products of the Philippine Islands entering the United States. I earnestly recommend that the tariff now imposed by the Dingley bill upon the products of the Philippine Islands be entirely removed, except the tariff on sugar and tobacco, and that that tariff be reduced to 25 per cent of the present rates under the Dingley act, that after July 1, 1909, the tariff upon tobacco and sugar produced in the Philippine Islands be entirely removed and that free trade between the islands and the United States in the products of each country then be provided for by law.

In my judgment, immediate steps should be taken for the fortification of Hawaii. This is the most important point in the Pacific to fortify in order to conserve the interests of this country. It would be hard to overstate the importance of this need. Hawaii is too heavily taxed. Laws should be enacted setting aside for a period of, say twenty years 75 per cent of the internal revenue and customs receipts from Hawaii as a special fund to be expended in the islands.

I earnestly advocate the adoption of legislation which will explicitly confer American citizenship on all citizens of Porto Rico.

I wish also to call the attention of the congress to one question which affects our insular possessions generally—namely, the need of an increased liberality in the treatment of the whole franchise question in these islands.

I earnestly ask that Alaska be given an elective delegate.

Admission to Statehood.

I recommend that Indian Territory and Oklahoma be admitted as one state and that New Mexico and Arizona be admitted as one state.

The Panama Canal.

Active work in canal construction, mainly preparatory, has been in progress for less than a year and a half. During that period two points about the canal have ceased to be open to debate. First, the question of route; second, the question of feasibility. The point which remains unsettled is whether the canal shall be one of several locks above sea level or at sea level with a single tide lock. On this point I hope to lay before the congress at an early day the findings of the advisory board of American and European engineers.

In addition to sanitating the isthmus, satisfactory quarters are being provided for employees and an adequate system of supplying them with wholesome food at reasonable prices has been created. Hospitals have been established and equipped that are without superiors of their kind anywhere. During the past year a large portion of the plant with which the work is to be done has been ordered. It is confidently believed that by the middle of the approaching year a sufficient proportion of this plant will have been installed to enable us to resume the work of excavation on a large scale.

What is needed now and without delay is an appropriation by the congress to meet the current and accruing expenses of the commission. The first appropriation of $100,000,000 out of the $125,000,000 authorized by the Spooner act was made three years ago. It is nearly exhausted. Unless the congress shall appropriate before that time all work must cease.

In conclusion the president recommends an increase in the diplomatic and consular service and more adequate compensation of its members.]

Indigestion

There is no reason why a person should not eat anything he chooses—if he chews it carefully—the trouble is most people are afraid of every good-looking, good-smelling, good-tasting thing on the bill of fare because it "don't agree with them." They actually starve themselves into sickness. Dieting cannot cure dyspepsia—if we cut off every article of food that disagrees with us before long we have nothing left, and we find ourselves chronic dyspeptics. When you eat something that don't agree with you, it's time to get after your stomach and tone it up. From our own experience in selling dyspepsia cures, there is nothing that equals Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. From what our customers tell us of this Rexall Remedy we are convinced that consistent use of it will give any one the stomach of an ostrich and the appetite of a farm hand. We don't know of a stomach trouble Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets won't cure.

We place the same guarantee on this remedy that we do on all Rexall Remedies, money back if dissatisfied. Fifteen days' treatment for twenty-five cents. Try it to-day.

A REASON

Stop for a minute and think—we sell in our store 200 Rexall Remedies. If you were to buy Rexall Dyspepsia Cure and it didn't benefit you, could we expect you to buy Rexall Rheumatic Cure, or Rexall Cough Cure, or any other one of the Rexall Remedies—we believe not. We do not say that each Rexall Remedy will always cure the disease for which it is named, but we do say that if it doesn't cure it won't cost you anything. We will refund you the price you pay for any Rexall Remedy you buy in our store if it does not benefit you.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—A double reverse was administered to Mayor Dunne the aldermen rejecting his plan both on gas rates and his traction plan. DAY'S BUSINESS IN COURT HOUSE

PREINER MURDER TRIAL WILL BE STARTED TOMORROW MORNING.

September Jurors Discharged—Frank E. Smith Files Answer and Cross Petition.

A special venire for 36 jurors has been heretofore issued, and the citizens mentioned therein will appear tomorrow, twelve of whom will hear the case of Ohio vs. Henry Freiner, indicted for murder in the first degree.

Verdict for Plaintiff. In the case of Margaret A. Williams vs. Joshua W. Wright, the jurors returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $126. The action was brought upon a promissory note, in which the defendant claimed that certain payments had been made. Smythe & Smythe; Norpell. A motion for a new trial has been filed by the defendant, claiming that the verdict is not supported by the evidence, and other reasons stated in the motion.

Jurors Discharged. The September term petit jurors were excused by Judge Coyner for the term, after receiving the thanks of the Court for their promptness and strict attention to duty.

Smith Divorce Suit. In the case of Loretta M. Smith against Frank E. Smith, suit for divorce commenced in the Probate court, the defendant, by his attorneys, Smythe & Smythe, has filed his answer and cross petition. He says that it is not true that the plaintiff has been a faithful and obedient wife, but that on the contrary she has been guilty of infidelity. He says his wife is engaged in business on her own account, and that she receives an income abundantly sufficient to support herself. He says that a separation between himself and his wife occurred on April 28, 1934, and that for four or five years previous to that time she was cross and unkind to him, making his home so disagreeable that he could not live with her happily, and that her actions were done with the intention of driving him from her. Defendant denies that he was guilty of gross neglect of duty towards his wife, and says that the B. & O. railway company is not indebted to him in a sum exceeding $8, and asks that the petition of his wife be dismissed.

For cross petition the defendant says that he was married to the plaintiff on October 31, 1878, and that two children were born of the marriage, both of whom are of full age and self supporting. He charges his wife with infidelity and asks that a decree of divorce be decreed him.

In Squire's Court. Michael Schonberg, junk dealer, on Monday caused a warrant to be issued from Squire J. R. Atcherley's court for the arrest of Louis Scheffer, charging him with having obtained money from him to the amount of $50 under false pretenses. Schonberg claims that Scheffer represented to him that he was the owner of a lot of rags, brass, copper, zinc, lead, rubber boots and shoes and other articles, when in reality he was not the owner of the goods. The hearing has been set for 3 o'clock this afternoon before Squire Atcherley.

Court Notes. In the case of the Centerburg Building and Loan company of Centerburg, O., against Smith E. Gorsuch and others, the defendant, Oren Nichols, has filed his answer and cross petition. T. L. King, attorney for Oren Nichols.

Dying of Famine. Is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers, of Clearfork, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." ADVICE TO SHOPPERS

It is not too early to talk about early shopping. It is a common practice to beg people to shop early in order to save wear and tear on clerks, especially women clerks.

That is all right and humane and kind.

But the main point is the one of self-interest.

All of the goods you want for holiday purposes are in the stores now.

You can find everything your heart could desire or your means cover, on counters and shelves.

You can find competent clerks who are not too busy to devote time to you. You can shop quietly and calmly, which is good for the nerves.

There is another item. It is often easier to purchase $5 worth of holiday goods each week for three weeks than it is to save the money for a $15 splurge in a single shopping trip.

Good advice is wasted on some folks, but there are enough people who desire to avoid shopping trials, and who are grateful when their memories are jogged, to make it worth while to print this advice.

Grace Van Studdiford will be at the Auditorium Thursday evening, appearing in the new comic opera, "Lady Teazle." The piece proved sensationally successful in New York, where it enjoyed a three months' season at the Messrs. Shubert's Casino, that popular home of comic opera, the birthplace of most of the famous American comic operas and musical comedies of the past twenty-five years. "Lady Teazle" is the youngest of the Casino family, and, according to the Gotham critics, one of the brightest of its long list of productions. It is described by the advance agent as "a straight comic opera with all the lavish finishings of modern musical comedy," and it is to come with the original cast and chorus of one hundred people, including, of course, the main scenic and costume features of the Broadway production, and the sixty young women forming the much-talked-of chorus of beautiful Casino girls. Seats now on sale.

MY WIFE'S FAMILY.
"My Wife's Family" is the title of a merry musical conceit written by Stephens and Linton, which comes to the Auditorium Saturday matinee and night. This farce met with immediate success when presented last season and is duplicating that success again this year wherever seen. The story, which is a clever one, tells of the trials and tribulations of a young married man endeavoring to rid himself of his mother-in-law and his wife's relatives. He resorts to everything except murder to accomplish that purpose, and as can be imagined the many mix-ups and funny complications which ensue furnish plenty of ludicrous situations and laughable scenes. The cast employed in the interpretation of the merry musical melange is one of the best on tour, including as it does some of the best farceurs on the comedy stage. There is no end of bright comedy lines, catchy musical and dance numbers, while there is a long string of vaudeville specialties interpolated by members of the company.

DESERTED AT THE ALTAR.
Pierce Kingsley has given to the stage a play that will live for many years to come. It is now in its third year, and is meeting with greater success than in former years, and it well deserves to, as no play of modern times has reached the hearts of all as has "Deserted at the Altar." It is truly called a play for mothers, wives, sisters and sweethearts. Auditorium, one night, Monday, Dec. 11.

MANIAC HUNG ON COW CATCHER

In Every Town Reached by Train Engaged People in Battle—Has Disappeared.

Millersburg, O., Dec. 5.—The search for the maniac Boley, who led the officers of this city and other towns on the Pittsburg and Fort Wayne railroad a wild chase and engaged them in a desperate battle last Saturday, is still on. The theory is that his body will be found along the track. In fear that he may be still alive, roaming the fields and hiding out in the woods, the posses are well armed and prepared for any kind of battle Boley can put up.

When Boley was seized with insanity here he ran amuck and had undisputed possession of the streets until the citizens and officers had armed themselves to go after him. When he saw them coming he boarded a train just starting out. A phone message to Shreve, six miles ahead, to the marshal was sent, and he intercepted Boley. A desperate fight ensued. Boley's hat, coat and vest were torn from him and he was badly battered. About the time the train started Boley broke from his captors, and, running around the engine, which had already reached some speed, jumped on the pilot. Without any clothing, except shirt, pants and shoes he escaped.

A message to Wooster, 10 miles away, failed to reach the officers in time to intercept the insane man, and he sped on his way east toward Orrville. Since then nothing has been heard of him.

Huge Task.
It was a huge task, to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by Hall, the druggist; price 50c."

MOLD PATENTED

By Wm. H. Lucas of Newark for Building Manholes, Cesspools and Catchbasins.

Mr. William H. Lucas of this city, has just received through his attorney, J. Howard Jones, articles of patent for a mold used in building manholes, cesspools and catchbasins. This new invention makes it possible to build a manhole, such as is used in building sewers, without the expense of using a cast iron top. After Mr. Lucas' method, it is constructed entirely of concrete, being cheaper and more durable. Mr. Lucas recently patented a process for building cisterns which has proved to be a big success.

Once a Prosperous Merchant.
Philadelphia, Dec. 5.—In ill health, parted from his wife and son, and dependent upon charity for his existence, George C. Jones, once a prosperous merchant, committed suicide in the cellar of the Germantown poor house by cutting his throat with a butcher's knife. Last week Jones made two unsuccessful attempts to end his life. Four years ago the son left home to become a jockey, and was taken up by a widely known racing man.

Crowe on Trial.
Omaha, Neb., Dec. 5.—Pat Crowe, the alleged kidnaper of Eddie Cudaby, son of millionaire packer, was placed on trial on a charge of shooting with intent to kill Patrolman Al Jackson on the night of Sept. 6. In case of failure to convict Crowe on this charge he will probably be placed on trial in connection with the kidnapping.

TOMMY TALBOT DROWNS IN FEEDER

Body Discovered Early Tuesday Morning by J. M. Wharton, Driver for Fred Lisey—Believed Ice Broke as He Started to Cross Stream.

Poor "Tommy" Talbot is no more. His dead body was found floating in the icy waters of the feeder, a short distance north of the Armory, at an early hour Tuesday morning, life evidently having been extinct for some time, as the body was frozen stiff, and ice was clinging to his hair and face.

The ghastly discovery was made by John M. Wharton, a driver for Fred Lisey, the well known commission merchant. Mr. Wharton had gone to Bourner's planing mill about seven o'clock Tuesday morning for a load of boxes. As he started to return he noticed a man's hat and coat floating in the water, and thinking there was something peculiar about them started to investigate, when he discovered the object to be the body of a man.

Calling several passers-by, among them being Officers Carroll and Ziegler, to his assistance, they drew the remains out of the water. The body was at once identified as that of Thomas Talbot, a well known man of Newark, who had been making his home for some time with his sister, Mrs. William Kehoe, on Eastern avenue. For some time he had been employed in the restaurant of John Prior.

His father, Henry Talbot, died about two years ago, and his mother, Mrs. Nora Talbot, resides on South Fifth street. Coroner C. L. Legge was at once notified and after viewing the body had it taken to the undertaking establishment of J. A. McGonagle, on West Main street, where it was prepared for interment.

The deceased is survived by his aged mother and two brothers, Henry Talbot, who lives on South First street, this city, and John Talbot of Chicago Junction, who is a brakeman on the B. & O. railroad, and one sister, Mrs. William Kehoe, of Eastern avenue, this city. At this writing it is not known when the funeral will be held.

Coroner Legge held an inquest on Tuesday afternoon. An Advocate reporter visited the scene of the drowning on Tuesday morning and from the indications it seems that the drowning was accidental. Everything points to the fact that the man had started to cross the feeder on the ice, and that he had not taken over two or three steps before the treacherous ice gave way, and let him down to a watery grave.

ANOTHER BIG BUILDING

Will be Erected on North Park Place in the Spring With Frontage of 100 Feet—Browns to Build Six Story Block on Second Street.

It is learned from good authority that another big building is to be erected within a few months, the site to be the Meyer & Lindorf property on the northeast corner of the public square, opposite the Auditorium.

This property includes the entire depth of the block and extends westward to the Kuster restaurant.

Reports have it that the proposed new structure will have a 100 foot frontage and a depth of 140 feet. The height will be probably five or six stories. The first floor, it is understood, will be principally of glass fronts and sides and it is highly probable that a large and strictly modern department store will occupy the principal floors, while the remainder will be used for office purposes. The building proposed will be one of the finest in this part of the state, and will be constructed after the type of the better structures of Chicago.

Mr. A. R. Lindorf of the firm of Meyer & Lindorf, was questioned on Tuesday regarding the proposition, but stated that no moves had been made definite enough to warrant a statement from him. Mr. Lindorf said: "There has been so much 'building on paper' recently that I hesitate to make any positive statement as yet. However, I shall go to Chicago Wednesday regarding this matter."

This means another great improvement in the appearance of the north side, and with the proposed change by the Consumer's company, this side of the public square will, no doubt, soon be a source of pride to the city.

Another proposed six story structure is to be erected by the heirs of the late Thomas Brown, on the property next the canal on the east side of South Second street.

The site in question is now occupied by the C. S. Brown feed store, and the building is one of the oldest in Newark having been erected at the time when the Ohio canal was at its height as a commercial water way. The property extends back along the canal for 100 feet and has a 50 foot frontage.

The building proposed is to be occupied by several firms, one of which will construct it.

The building will be of steel frame with pressed brick facings, but the details of the interior have not yet been completed.

The William Beall farm on Granville road, just outside the city limits, which was owned by J. G. Samsell of Morgantown, W. Va., was sold Monday by Rees R. Jones to Mr. William Jones, of this county, for the consideration of $8,000.

The fine property of S. P. King, located at the corner of West Church and Twelfth streets, was sold recently to W. S. Shirer, father of Dr. Shirer of this city, for $4500. Mr. Shirer's family are now occupying the new residence. Rees R. Jones was the contracting agent.

Chilcote & Jones have begun excavating on their newly acquired property adjoining the Union block on Fourth street, preparatory to the erection of a six story building in the spring. This is the Rank livery stable property.

Excavating at the corner of First and East Main streets by the Sherwood company which will build a big apartment house, has not yet been started.

The Newark Trust company which will build a ten story block on the west side, where Elliott & Wilson's store stands, will not begin work till April 1.

PLEA MADE FOR PUBLIC PARKS

CITY IS GROWING RAPIDLY AND ALL AVAILABLE GROUND WILL SOON BE COVERED.

Milton R. Scott Addresses Newark Ministerial Association on This Important Matter.

Milton R. Scott attended the meeting of the Newark Ministerial Association Monday and addressed the pastors briefly on the subject of city parks.

"Our city is growing in all directions, and in our schools, churches and most other institutions our progress will compare favorably with that of any city in the country," said Mr. Scott; "but why are we giving no attention to the establishment of public parks as playgrounds for our children, and places of recreation for people of all ages and classes? In all parts of the city dwellings are being crowded closer together, so that a large percentage of small children have no play ground but the street and the pavement. Of course, children can derive much pleasure from dust and stone and brick, but it would be much better for them to play on the grass, as well as to have more space in which to carry on their various games. In behalf of all the children of the city I would fain invoke the interest of the clergy and what ever influence they may be able to exert in the pulpit and elsewhere, to the end that parks may be established within easy distance of all the families of the city.

"Children's characters are formed from their plays as well as from the discipline of the school and the home, and therefore it is most desirable that they should have as much of the smiles and beauty of Nature before their eyes as it is possible to give them.

"Tired mothers, clerks, workmen of all classes, should also have a place to spend a portion of their summer evenings and their Sunday afternoons. I hold that this would be at least a partial solution of the Sunday problem, as Sunday should be a day of rest and recreation as well as a day of direct worship. I may not be far from heresy on this point, but I would make holy day and holiday as similar in practice as they are in orthography.

"Rev. Dr. Horace Bushnell was largely instrumental in securing a system of parks in Hartford, Conn., and other cities of that state. Why should not the clergy of Newark lift up their voices and promote an agitation that will secure the same blessing to the people of Newark?

"It might be impossible to secure any action of the city council at the present time, but let the agitation begin."

CHAIRMAN GARBER

Makes Statement of Campaign Fund Used in Ohio This Year—Sum Expended $13,000.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Congressman Harvey C. Garber of Ohio, who as chairman of the Democratic state committee, conducted the campaign which resulted in the election of Governor John M. Pattison, believes in publicity in the matter of campaign contributions.

Upon his return to Ohio late this week he will make public in detail the receipts and expenditures of his committee, also the names of the contributors to the fund.

"We expended approximately $13,000," he said. "It was a very small fund, especially as compared with the Republican fund, and only half as large as the fund of the Democrats two years ago, when Tom L. Johnson was candidate for governor. The money we spent went almost entirely for maintaining headquarters, printing and distributing literature and the expenses of men who traveled about investigating conditions. Nearly 60 per cent of the entire fund, or about $7,500, came from Mr. Pattison. John B. Bookwalter, of Springfield, was the next largest contributor with $500. M. E. Ingalls, Cincinnati, gave $300 and L. E. Holden, Cleveland, a similar amount. Wm. Thomas of Springfield, sent $250, and Mayor Johnson, Cleveland, sent $500, which he and other Cleveland Democrats raised for us."

Every now and then William Dean Howells, one of America's most distinguished novelists, drops into the little country town of Jefferson, Ohio, and into the office of the Sentinel, where he used to stick type, and sets up a few paragraphs to see if he has forgotten how.

JUST WANTED TO SEE

An old negro went to the bank in which he kept hard earned savings, and asked the paying teller to give him all the money he had deposited. He offered no explanation of his sudden desire to withdraw his funds, and after vain argument with him the teller counted out the bills and delivered them to the old man. He eyed the paper money a moment and said:

"Kin I git dat in silver, boss?"

The teller assured him he could, and forthwith made the exchange. The old negro retired to a neighboring desk, remained crouched over it a long time, and then, to the teller's great surprise, returned to the window and gleefully thrust his money back through the pigeon hole. Before he could speak, the old man said grinning widely:

"Thanks, boss. you kin take it back: I jes wanted t' see ef it wuz all there."

THOMPSON'S BAROSMA.

Do you realize that the annoying kidney trouble of your young children, of your baby, will lead in time to fatal results if not remedied? Thousands of children, of young men and women, die every year because of the neglect of parents to give the proper care in this respect in their early years. Mrs. Fred Loblenz, of Tusculum, Pa., writes that her little son, four years old, after being given three bottles of Thompson's Barosma, was permanently cured of bed-wetting, an annoying trouble since babyhood. Mrs. N. F. Leslie, of Oil City, Pa., says her five-year old daughter, after several months of ineffective treatment by physicians for bladder trouble, and being in dangerous condition, was completely cured by six bottles of Thompson's Barosma. MORNING

WE OPEN THE GATES TO TOYLAND.

This year our Toyland stock is almost twice as large as it was last year. Crammed full of everything new and bright. But wont the children welcome this news of the readiness of our Toyland, which is wonderful to them. Won't they hasten here; wont they gaze enraptured at the thousands and one little toys; stand amazed at the mechanical people and animals that act so life-like, and you fond parent, will enjoy these things almost as much, enjoy bringing the little ones here, if only to get a cue to tip off Old Santa as to what to stuff the stocking with.

The Dollies and The Little Girls

It would really be a shame to keep the little girls from visiting the beautiful dolls, they will enjoy a call here so much. They will be fascinated. You will almost have to drag them away. All kinds of dolls from three inches to three feet tall. Rag dolls, black dolls, crying dolls, talking dolls in fact about every kind of doll made that we think is good enough for our little store friends. In selecting these toy assortments we have been very practical. All the toys are strongly made and durable. Many are instructive and educational. Miniature engines that puff, real steam, electric motors, moving picture machines, real steam locomotives and trains on tracks, endless variety of mechanical toys, games, more than a score of them. Books for little ones and grown-ups. Remember the opening date is Wednesday, December 6. Come then and every day until Christmas. Bring the Children, let them spend an intensely enjoyed hour or two in Toyland.

STILL HUSKING CORN

Though Benninger Has Word From Home That He Has Inherited a Fortune.

Wooster, O., Dec. 5.—George Benninger, a Swiss laborer, who came here a few weeks ago from Cleveland has just received word that his share of his grandfather's estate, amounting to $50,000, would be paid to him through a Cleveland bank on December 15. Benninger does not seem to be carried away over his good fortune and spent the day husking corn.

WAS TOLD

That His Man Was in Town, so Shipp Bought a Gun and Shot Him Down.

Campbellsville, Ky., Dec. 5.—Jas. Shipp, who until recently was a butcher here, arrived on a noon train and asked if Joe Smith, another butcher, was in town. Learning he was, Shipp stepped into a hardware store, procured a shotgun and looked for Smith. Half a square away he found him on the street and shot him dead.

It is alleged they had trouble over meat accounts and jealousy. This is the second murder to Shipp's credit. The other occurred in about the same manner, with as little show for life.

Shipp tried to kill himself after being jailed. A plea of insanity may save him. The coroner's verdict is murder.

Million Dollar Fire.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—The Illinois Steel company, which is a branch of the United States Steel corporation, sustained a heavy loss when a building in Thirty-first street was destroyed by fire. The structure was used as a storage house for patterns and all of them were destroyed, entailing a loss which officials of the company estimate at $1,000,000.

NEARLY NINETY

But When His Romance was Spoiled Cox was Inconsolatable—Found Suffocated by Gas.

Piqua, O., Dec. 5.—John H. A. Cox, 88, an old soldier, was found dead in his home here last night, smothered by escaping gas fumes.

There is some reason to believe it a suicide. Two weeks ago Cox took out a license to marry Mrs. Mary Martin, a widow of 66, but the marriage was prevented by her relatives, who sent her to Dayton. The old man grieved greatly and would not be consoled. In this mood several times he expressed a wish he might die.

Not having been seen since Saturday night, an entrance to the house where Cox lived alone was forced last evening.

DAY NURSERY

Rooms at 70 East Main Street Are Thrown Open and an Informal Reception Held.

Today was Donation Day for the Day Nursery, which has been opened by the members of the Mary Webb Memorial Circle, with Mrs. George P. Webb as leader. The rooms at 70 East Main street were thrown open and an informal reception held, and contributions were thankfully received.

Those interested in this worthy cause may become associate members by the payment of one dollar to the cause. Over $200 is now in the treasury.

The need of this Day Nursery has been felt, for it is realized how many women in the city are retarded from their daily work of contributing to the support of their families by the management of several small children. All their worry and care will be eliminated, when the children are left in the care of a watchful matron, and know that wholesome food will also be furnished.

Friday afternoon tea was held at the home of Mrs. Marvinton Moore in the interest of the nursery. A paper was read by Mrs. Alice Corner Brown and also by Mrs. H. N. P. Dole, both of Columbus. Mrs. George Webb also spoke of the local conditions in favor of the nursery.

The matron will be assisted in her work by the young ladies of the circle.

Two Attempts at Suicide.

Greensboro, N. C., Dec. 5.—Dr. Joseph B. Matthews, who is in jail awaiting a hearing on the charge of causing the death of his wife by poison on Friday last, made two attempts to commit suicide. He diluted the heads of a number of matches in a cup of water and swallowed the contents. He soon lost consciousness, but his groans attracted the attention of a prison guard, who summoned a physician, and his life was saved. Later, after sharpening the edge of a pocket-pon on his cell floor, he opened an artery in his wrist, but the flow of blood was stopped in time to again save his life. Matthews is raving in his delirium.

ANOTHER GAME FOR ALL STARS

COSHOCTON TEAM DEFEATED BY SIXTY-ONE PINS ON HAYES ALLEYS.

Peterman Rolled Score of 247 and Finished With High Average of the Evening.

Thirteen straight victories is the record of the Hayes All Stars bowling team. This unlucky number was added to the string at the Hayes alleys last night when the Star bowling team of Coshocton dropped into town after supper and went up against the Newark bunch on the Hayes alleys for another match game. The locals kept in the lead in the first and second games, but in the last game their score fell far below the average and the visitors boosted their averages and beat the locals by 45 pins. The final count showed the Newark bowlers 61 pins ahead.

For the All Stars Peterman was the best bowler in the game. His high score of 247 was not approached at any time during the evening. This brought his average to 195 which is excellent. Kates was high man in the first game, getting 208 pins. For Coshocton Miller rolled the high score with 192.

Captain Armstrong was out of the city and could not join his team mates in the game. Lippincott rolled in his stead and while he fell down badly in the last game, his first two scores were good.

The scores:

All Stars	Kates	Miller	Tot.	Av.
Kates	208	125	160	432
F. Jones	153	174	157	398
Peterman	247	162	162	580
H. Jones	138	173	137	408
Lippincott	151	122	106	434
	836	822	741	2355

Coshocton—Miller 192, 162, 124, 478; Jones 153, 174, 157, 481; Peterman 247, 162, 162, 580; H. Jones 138, 173, 137, 408; Lippincott 151, 122, 106, 434.

For the All Stars Peterman was the best bowler in the game. His high score of 247 was not approached at any time during the evening. This brought his average to 195 which is excellent. Kates was high man in the first game, getting 208 pins. For Coshocton Miller rolled the high score with 192.

Origin of Railway Whistles.

Locomotives 75 years ago had no whistles. The engineer kept by his side a tin horn which he blew before curves and dangerous crossings. But the noise was feeble.

In 1833 an English farmer's cart was run down on the way to market and 1,000 eggs, 100 pounds of butter, two horses and a man were dumped in one great omelet on the rails.

The railway had to pay the damages. The president sent for George Stevenson and said angrily:

"Our engineers can't blow their horns loud enough to clear the tracks ahead. You have made your steam do so much—why don't you make it blow a good, loud horn for us?"

Stevenson pondered. An idea came to him. He visited a musical instrument maker and had constructed a horn that gave a horrible screech when blown by steam.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a humming sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

BUY YOUR GOODS IN NEWARK

"See that man getting off the Columbus car, with a big bundle under his arm?" remarked a well known Newark gentleman to the writer last night. "And there's a woman just back from the Capital City loaded with merchandise. Her husband earns every dollar from Newark people, yet she goes to Columbus to do her shopping."

The writer looked and saw. Then when the next car came in from Columbus more people armed with Columbus merchandise left the car with purchases made in the state capital.

The incident referred to is not an extraordinary one. It may be seen day after day. One visiting the Columbus stores may see numerous Newark people there buying this and that which might just as well be purchased here in Newark at the same or even a less price.

Occasionally it may be necessary or desirable to go elsewhere for goods, but 99 times out of every hundred household goods, dry goods, cloaks, gowns, jewelry, furniture, stoves and supplies of all kinds can be bought more advantageously here than in another city.

Thousands of dollars are taken to Columbus every month that should be spent in Newark stores and the time is coming when all who have the right interest in Newark should make an effort to lessen the practice of buying goods in out of town stores.

Newark merchants pay their taxes, they own or rent Newark buildings.

They have their money invested and have a right to demand Newark trade, all things being equal. Why should people whose sole income is derived from Newark sources take these Newark dollars and carry them to Columbus? Why not keep the money in circulation here?

If one spends a ten dollar note with Mr. So and So's store here in his home town, he has a fair chance to get at least a part of it back tomorrow or next day or at some future time, but when that ten dollar bill gets to Columbus it is pretty certain to stay there.

There is only one way to make Newark boom as it should and that is for its people to "boost" the town.

Newark stores are a credit to the city. The stores just at this time are fairly bursting with holiday goods, the choicest that money can buy. Rents and expenses are cheaper here than in Columbus and prices as a rule are absolutely lower. Stocks in the leading stores are just as complete, just as desirable.

Before you can decide to make the holiday purchases in Columbus, visit Newark stores and see what is to be had and in one corner of your mind set down this fact:

Columbus merchants do nothing to promote Newark's interests, but Newark merchants do.

Don't you take a pride in Newark's advancement? Then help her to advance still more by spending your money here at home. You'll feel better by knowing that you are doing the right thing.

FOOTBALL GOSSIP

Columbia university students are making a great fuss over the abolishing of football from their institution. These same students played the dirtiest ball, too, of any team in the country. That is one reason why they were denied the game. The cat is only coming home.

It is said that Coach Stagg has magnificent prospects for his next year's football team. He has Walter Steffens and several other freshmen stars of this year ready to place on his 'varsity eleven. Stagg is pretty wise after all.

It is said that there are some dissatisfied people in Ann Arbor, who are clamoring for Yost's head. It was ever thus. The victories of five full years are soon swallowed up in one defeat, which really was just a mistake of one player, who had a defective "think tank" momentarily.

CHAS. A. PEABODY FOR PRESIDENT

WILL PROBABLY BE ELECTED AT MEETING OF THE MUTUAL DIRECTORS TOMORROW.

Messrs. Cromwell and McClintock Stated For Vice President of Insurance Company.

New York Dec. 5.—Charles A. Peabody has been selected as the next president of the Mutual Life Insurance company. Unless the program prepared by the trustees is unexpectedly changed, Peabody is expected to be elected at a meeting of the board of directors tomorrow. According to this program Frederic Cromwell, who was named last week to fill temporarily the vacancy caused by the retirement of Richard A. McCurdy, will be elected vice president and Emory McClintock second vice president.

This announcement is made today on the authority of a member of the Mutual's board of trustees, who has taken an active part in the recent movement to re-organize the management of the company. The selection of Peabody was said to have been a compromise between two factions in the board each of which had a candidate.

Peabody is well-known as a banker and railroad man. He is a director of several local banks and also a director of the Illinois Central, Union Pacific and is a member of the board of managers of the Delaware & Hudson railroad. His insurance connections has been limited to the directorate of the British-American Insurance company, of New York.

Newark People are Pleased to Learn How it is Done.

It's pretty hard to attend to duties With a constantly aching back; With annoying urinary disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills make work easier.

They cured backache.

They cure every kidney ill.

Milton Smith, engineer on the B. & O. R. R., and living at 328 E. Main St., Newark, O., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been a family remedy with us and it has never failed in a single case. My trouble was kidney complaint and backache, brought on, I think, by the jarring of the engine. It affected me in the small of the back and every throb of the engine seemed to make the pain almost unbearable. The trouble was so deep seated that it defied all my efforts to cure it. After trying many different preparations in vain a friend who had been cured of similar troubles by Doan's Kidney Pills advised me to try them and I got a box at Crayton's drug store. The treatment with Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of all the trouble. My wife also used Doan's Kidney Pills for backache and kidney trouble and found a quick and complete cure. I know of a quick railroad man who have used this remedy for the same trouble that afflicted me and in every case the same good work."

POST OFFICE FORCE

Will be Busy Till After Christmas. Extra Clerks For the Holiday Rush of Mail.

The officials of the Newark post-office are making every necessary arrangement to provide additional facilities for handling the heavy Christmas mail. Two or three extra clerks will be employed in the postoffice.

Even at this early date the increase in the amount of mail matter handled is noticeable. Persons having packages which are to be sent to distant points are now mailing their presents, and within the next week the receipts of Christmas packages are expected to begin.

In regard to the mailing of packages a few hints may be of value to the sender, and may save a possible loss of valuable property. Packages should be securely wrapped in heavy paper and under no circumstances, no matter how short the distance to be traveled, should the address be written in lead pencil. The address of the sender should also be given, as a precautionary measure so that if not delivered the package may be returned.

Valuable enclosures should always be sent through the registered mail department. This means an additional cost of eight cents, but it insures the safe transmission of the article and indemnifies the sender to the sum of not more than $25 if by any mischance the article should be lost.

It is requested that all who can take the precaution to bring their packages to the office and there have them weighed and ascertain the exact amount of postage required. This would save many needless disappointments. The postal rates are two cents per ounce for books and one cent per ounce for merchandise, but few people can remember this, and often serious mistakes are made as to the re-

SMALL RIOTS

Attend the Agitation For Universal Suffrage in Hungary.

Budapest, Dec. 5.—The hostility to universal suffrage manifested in some quarters developed into riotous scenes when workmen attacked the offices of the Budapest Herald, broke all the windows and entered and wrecked the pressroom. The occupants of the building fired on the rioters, who finally were dispersed by the police. The number of injured is not known. The composing room staffs of seven newspapers, as the result of opposition to universal suffrage, struck and the papers are unable to appear. The executive committee of the coalition parties will hold a meeting to consider the situation.

Senator Clay Ill.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Senator Clay of Georgia was attacked with a case of acute indigestion while walking along the street. He staggered into halfway of a house meaning "I am dying, get a doctor at once," and fell in agony on the floor. A physician was promptly summoned and it required two hours' work before he pronounced the senator out of danger and had him removed to his apartments. The senator is improving.

They are parading the streets asking for food. Governor General Kaibars refuses to help them and they are threatening to steal and plunder.

Mrs. Taggart's Appeal—Zimmerman's Denial—Ground to Pieces.
Ohio News.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 5.—As the result of the conference of 50 mayors and mayors-elect of Ohio cities, held here at the invitation of Mayor Tom L. Johnson, an organization was formed to further the best interests of the people of the state by the suggestion of legislation which will provide as far as possible for a simpler and more popular form of government than exists under the present code.
An organization was made with the following officers: President, Mayor-elect Frank L. Baldwin of Youngstown; secretary, Mayor-elect Kilpatrick of Warren. They will hold office for one year. The president was authorized to name a committee of seven, including himself, to start the work of gathering necessary data as to necessary changes in the municipal code, this data to be eventually presented to the state legislature with the backing of the mayors' association that the recommendations be favorably acted upon. The committee is to be made up of three mayors from the larger cities and three from the smaller ones.

Mrs. Taggart's Appeal.
Wooster, O., Dec. 5.—The affidavit of prejudice filed a week ago by Mrs.
Grace V. Taggart, against Judge Eason, who heard the Taggart divorce case, and which was withdrawn shortly after being filed pending an effort to compromise as to the custody of children and modification of the grounds of the decree, was ordered by Mrs. Taggart's attorneys to be sent to Judge Campbell of Ashland, the presiding judge of the district. This action is taken to mean that the efforts at a settlement were without avail and that Mrs. Taggart is determined to secure a new trial
if possible.

Zimmerman's Denial.
Cleveland, O., Dec. 5.—Concerning the alleged friction between himself and Mr. Morgan over the sale of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, Eugene Zimmerman said:
"There is absolutely no truth in these published stories. Mr. Morgan, Mr.
Hollins and myself are working together in perfect harmony. I have not the least idea what Mr. Morgan will do with the Great Central property, and I doubt if Mr. Morgan himself has formed any plans."

Ground to Pieces.
Deshler, O., Dec. 5.—James Rithinger, 65, who operates an elevator at Cuslar, was ground to pieces in a cleaning machine. His clothes caught in a belt and he was carried into the loft, where he was fed into the swiftly revolving machine. He leaves a wife and 11 children.

Found Poison in Babe's Stomach.
Columbus, O., Dec. 5.—In his analysis of the stomach of the baby who died at West Salem, Wayne county, several weeks ago, Professor C. C.
Howard of Starling Medical college found traces of morphine, and so reported to Coroner H. J. Sullivan of Wayne county. The coroner started an investigation, and a dispatch from Wooster states that Mrs. Flora Morchouse, mentioned in the case, has disappeared. It is claimed that the woman conducted a baby farm at West Salem, and that the mysterious death of two infants caused neighbors to become suspicious.

Bucket of Powder Exploded.
Marion, O., Dec. 5.—Carrying a bucket of powder, Elmer Conklin, 40, passed a lighted gas leak in a main at Owen. He threw a handful of powder from the bucket on the blaze, with the result that the bucket of

CITY COUNCIL
Notified by State Auditor About the Way to Proceed in Changing Salaries of Officers.

A letter was passed around among the councilmen Monday night at the regular meeting from the State Auditor, calling the attention of that body to the fact that any changes that they might see fit to make in the salaries of any of the officers, must be made before the newly elected officers take their seats.

The council was referred to Section 126 of the Municipal Code which says: "The salary of any officer, clerk or employee shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he may be elected or appointed."

No action was taken by the council, as a body, and the communication was not formally presented to the members but some action may be taken at the next meeting.

VACCINATED ARMS
And Knees, Two Thousand of Them on a Single Steamer, The Princess Irene.

New York, Dec. 5.—"Ouch, watch out for my arm!"

Nearly 2,000 vaccinated passengers on the overdue steamship Princess Irene which docked in Hoboken, made this their salutation of welcome when their friends embraced them on the pier. Tears and lamentations were the order of the hour, while some crasped their scarred arms, and others, the younger members of the gentler sex, rubbed their knees and protested that the ship's doctors
"were just too horrid for anything."
The vessel brought in at least 250 sore knees.

The Princess Irene sailed from Genoa and Naples. One day out from the former port a second cabin passenger was taken ill. The ship's surgeon diagnosed the case as smallpox.
The vessel was rushed to Naples.
While lying in the bay of Naples it was decided to vaccinate every one aboard.

TRUANT OFFICER DISTRIBUTES CLOTHING AND FOOD TO CITY POOR.

Donations From School Children are Placed Where They Will Do
the Most Good.

Truant Officer D. J. Jones at the regular meeting of the Board of Education Monday night, made an excellent report, and one which heartily merits the praise of the citizens of Newark and the members of the Board of Education, which extended to him a vote of thanks.

Mr. Jones, whose willing efforts made many a needy family of this city, thankful and happy on Thanksgiving day, reported that he had delivered to those in need, 625 bundles of clothing and 695 jars of fruit and vegetables. One hundred and fifty jars of fruit and baskets of vegetables were given to the newly established Day Nursery, which has recently been opened by the King's Daughters. Mr. Jones worked alone at his task of relieving the poor of the city for several days preceding Thanksgiving, and also the greater part of that day. His efforts were fully appreciated. The food and clothing were given by the schoolboys and girls of Newark, and the distribution was made by the truant officer.

Superintendent J. D. Simkins stated to the board that the schools were greatly in need of about 40 roll maps.
He was authorized to get 10 of this number at present at a cost of probably $2.25 each.

The subject of boiler insurance, for the steam boilers of the different buildings was discussed, but not acted upon. The superintendent also reported that after the holidays another teacher will be needed in the High school, as it will be necessary to add from two to four recitations in physiology. The matter will be acted upon later.

The new West and the Indiana street schools requested the use of their buildings for the purpose of holding bazaars in the near future, the object being understood as a means of creating a library fund. This was referred to the superintendent.

Miss Stella Daly was chosen as an assistant in the Riverside school in the beginners' grade.

Scarcely any trouble in heating the various buildings has been observed, yet this winter, excepting the Indiana street school, which it was necessary to dismiss on Monday on account of the lack of heat. The defect was easily remedied, and the school was in session Tuesday.

GLOWING TRIBUTE
Paid to the Order of Elks' at Canton, Ohio by Judge E. M. P. Brister of Newark.

(Canton Morning News.)
The annual memorial service of Canton lodge, No. 68, B. P. O. E., was held at the Elks' handsome lodge rooms in the Folwell building Sunday afternoon.

The memorial address was made by Judge E. M. P. Brister of Newark, O.
The address was founded upon the principles of the order and occupied nearly half an hour in its delivery. The speaker had delved deep in preparing his address, and it abounded in well rounded eulogies of the one order in particular, and of mankind in general. He spoke of that fact that the order of Elks was a strictly American brotherhood, and that its aims and objects were for the aiding and uplifting of American manhood. He reasoned that the exercise of friendship and brotherly love was an aid to religion, and that men were better, stronger, truer, through uniting in a fraternal spirit.
He gave numerous quotations in support of his contentions and his address was one that did his audience good to hear.

Following the address, "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears" was sung by the Presbyterian quartet, and the benediction pronounced by Rev. Mr.
Kirkby.

Upon the calling of the roll of the departed brothers thirteen former members of the order were named. In whose memory these beautiful and impressive services were held.

FERRIS IN PEN.
Colored Man Who Escaped Mob in Fairfield County, Lands in Big Prison.

Columbus, Dec. 5.—Rufus Ferris, colored, was received at the penitentiary Monday from Fairfield county to serve 15 years for cutting with intent to kill.

Ferris entered the home of Adam Fisher, an old man near Pleasantville with the intention of robbing it. He entered the room of the daughter of the house, but fearing that in rummaging around he would awaken the old man, he went to the apartment where the old man lay and cut his throat. He made three slashes with a dull knife, and failed to kill the old gentleman, who made enough noise to startle the would-be mur-derer to flight. Ferris would have been mobbed when the sheriff of the county saved him by a mere chance.
